Did you register last Saturday? If you did not, don't put it off for another week.

Registration is not coming up to expectation in Greater New York or the other large cities of New York State. Both sides are claiming that they will profit by the falling off.

Chairman Adams is anxious for the people of North Carolina to see and hear Taft. Didn't a lot of them see him and hear him two years ago when he said a good many things the Tar Heel Republicans did not want to hear?

---

We are sorry to see that Independent ticket in Cumberland. This is no time for Democrats to be acting in any such way. We feel sure those Democrats who have formed this alliance with Republicans will see their error in time and will be back in party ranks by election day.

---

In his speech in Atlanta the other day Chafin, the Prohibition candidate for President thus designated the candidates: The Socialist labor leader in jail in Nevada as the "cheerless candidate," Mr. Taft as the "fearless candidate;" Mr. Bryan as the "peerless candidate," and himself as the "beerless candidate."

---

You young men who can cast your first ballot this year see to it that you qualify for the election by putting your names on the registration books, and when election day comes stand by and record of your fathers and the other good men of the State who rescued her from Republicanism, bankruptcy and disgrace.

---

In the far West the Republicans are trying to get votes for Taft by saying that if elected he will carry out the Roosevelt policies. The same men are trying to get votes for him in the East by telling the people that he will not follow those policies. As the Virginian-Pilot says, it is a wide straddle the Republicans are making between Maine and California.

Miss Sylvia Speer, the daughter of the Atlanta millionaire, who, on report of her marriage with her father's chauffeur, was rushed off to Europe by her mother, on arrival at Liverpool made denial to the newspaper men that she had been married. That was expected after she had been held in close confinement on a steamer by her irate mother for a week.

It is a crime in Deleware even to loan liquor to anyone. A judge in that State fines a man fifty dollars and sentences him to imprisonment for three months for loaning a friend a pint of whiskey until the latter could get his supply by express from across the State line. That is enforcing the prohibition law with avengeance and making prohibition prohibit.

WARD NO DAMAGE

Jury Finds For Defendant in Damage Suit of Little Against The City.

AMOUNT OF $5,000 ASKED

Case on Trial All Day Yesterday in Superior Court—Remained Out Less Than Half an Hour and Answered No.

After a trial lasting all day in the Superior Court, the jury which had in hearing the damage suit of William Duncan Little, colored, against the city of Wilmington in which the plaintiff was asking for $5,000 for the killing of his 14-year-old son in a bicyle and cart collision near Fourth Street Bridge in December 1906, brought in a verdict at 6 o'clock yesterday evening to the effect that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover.

The jury was out less than half an hour and first issue submitted having been answered in the negative, the others were not considered, the first issue being: "Was the plaintiff's intestate killed by the negligence of the defendant as alleged in the complaint?" The jury having said "no" to this issue, the question of damages was, of course not taken up. It is not thought that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court, though this may be done. The verdict also disposes to all intents and purposes of another suit brought by Little against the city for the loss of services of his son.

Court convened for the second and last week of the term yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and the jury having already been empanelled in the case the trial was immediately entered upon. The plaintiff introduced a number of witnesses and the defendant several in rebuttal, the testimony having been completed a little after the dinner recess. The attorneys of the defense then made a motion to dismiss the case on the ground that a cause of complaint had not been made out, but this was overruled by His Honor and the attorneys went to the jury. Messrs. Robert Ruark and Geo. L. Peschau presented the case for the plaintiff and City Attorney Bellamy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan for the city. It was late in the afternoon when the jury finally retired with the issues upon the charge of Judge Lyon and within twenty minutes the verdict as stated was returned.

The testimony was taken in shorthand by Mr. Meares Harriss, public stenographer.

The jury which had the case in hearing was composed of D. C. Marshall, J. M. Wiggins, C. H. Walsh, W. H. Peterson, Z. W. Walton, J. F. Blake, J. H. Brunjes, J. F. Rulfs, Sr., J. W. Scott, A. F. Gibson, C. D. Myers and F. A. Savage.

Court will meet this morning at 10 o'clock. With the re-arrangement of the calendar and the uncertain status of several suits on the docket, it is not known what case will be taken up this morning.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI.

Delightful Celebration of University Day at Sound Last Night.

"University Day" was fittingly observed with an outing and oyster roast at the Sound by the loyal alumni of that institution in this city last night. The party, numbering about 40, went down on a special car of the Tidewater Power Company at 8 o'clock and returned about 11 P. M., after an altogether delightful affair.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was first held in the "Lighthouse" upon reaching the Sound, Mr. Eugene S. Martin, president, in the chair. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Marsden Bellamy, Jr.; Vice President, H. B. Peschau, and Secretary and Treasurer, Benjamin Bell, Jr. An interesting personal letter to the alumni was read from Dr. Venable, president of the University, and the secretary was directed to send greetings in return from the Wilmington alumni. Upon motion of R. W. Herring, Esq., a committee was appointed by the president to confer with other alumni associations in the State with a view of erecting on the campus another University building to be used as dormitories. The president named on this committee Mr. Herring, chairman; Dr. G. G. Thomas, Louis Goodman, Esq., Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq., and Beniamin Bell, Jr.

The meeting was thoroughly enthusiastic and upon its adjournment the alumni enjoyed quite informally a delightful oyster roast served at Stokley's in most attractive style with all the necessary accompaniments. Dr. Thomas presided as toastmaster and ex tempore responses were made in happy vein by Mr. Eugene Martin, Mr. George Rountree, Mr. C. W. Worth, Louis Goodman, Esq., R. W. Herring, Esq., Mr. J. B. Huff Mr. Wingate Underhill, Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., and others.

STILL MORE ATTRACTIONS

Propositions From Ferarri to Bring Animal Show to Elksfest—Strobel Airship May Also Come. Speller's Contest.

In addition to the big attractions already booked for the great Elksfest week, the management has received propositions from Francis Ferarri, who is known as one of the biggest animal men in the country, and whose trained wild animal show at the Jamestown Exposition was one of the star features of the trail.

The Ferarri show consists of one of the largest tents on the road, with seats for one thousand people, and some two hundred wild animals. A splendid programme is given, and he carries his own band of music. During the engagement of the Ferarri show here, the Elks Committee propose to put on a wedding in the Llon cage, and for this purpose is receiving offers from young couples desirous of becoming united in the bonds of matrimony, and receiving therefor some valuable presents. This will be a unique affair, being the first ever held in Wilmington, and would unquestionably draw large crowds of people.

Manager Buckley leaves for Raleigh tonight, to inspect a number of shows there, and to try to make a contract with Chas. J. Stroebel for his airship. Mr. Strobel made flights with his airship for Mr. Buckley at the Jacksonville Mid-Winter Exposition last Winter, and he has the best known attraction of the kind in the country. The Stroebel Airship was a feature at every big Exposition, and many State Fairs, including the Richmond, Va. State Fair.

The speller's contest will be a unique feature of the week at Elksplaz. Chairman John H. Niggel, Jr., in charge of that department, has just received another entry in the contest in the person of Mr. M. L. Hoover, of Miami, Fla., a member of the Jacksonville lodge. Mr. Hoover has been calling stations on Flagler's East Coast Railway long enough to be an adept and Wilmington competitors will have to look well to their laurels.

SALVATION ARMY CHANGE

Adjutant and Mrs. Yates to Lynchburg; Adj and Mrs. Teed Here.

Adjutant and Mrs. Yates, in charge of the local post of the Salvation Army here, who were notified of their transfer from Wilmington on Saturday, were yesterday advised from Army headquarters that they have been assigned to the work at Lynchburg, Va., to which city they will go on the 21st of October, unless plans now on foot are successful in keeping them here. Adjutant and Mrs. Teed have been transferred from New Orleans to Wilmington and are expected here about the date named.

Yesterday afternoon a very strong petition under the strongest possible auspices was started and was largely signed asking that Adjutant and Mrs. Yates be retained at Wilmington. Of course, they stand ever ready to obey orders, but it would be pleasant for them to remain among a people who have ever been kind and considerate and in common with their hosts of friends in every walk of life here are waiting with interest the final decision of the Army officials in regard to the petition. It is to be hoped that the petition will avail.

CASKET DELIVERY WAGON

Mr. James F. Woolvin, the funeral director, yesterday received on the Clyde steamer from New York a very handsome casket delivery wagon which will be used in connection with his already finely equipped funeral parlors on Princess street. The wagon is enclosed in ebony wood, handsomely carved with german silver mountings and bears on either side of the body a large metal name plate. Inside are all necessary apartments for floral designs, casket and director's appliances. It is made for either single or double team and was made to order for Mr. Woolvin by one of the large carriage builders in New York, the order having been given on a recent visit of Mr. Woolvin North. The reporter was about to say it would be a pleasure to ride with Mr. Woolvin in the new wagon,but that is too much even for reportorial license. The wagon, though, is a very handsome vehicle

Rev. Johnson to Leave Here.

Following the services Sunday night, Rev. J. T. Johnson, pastor of the Advent Christian Church, announced to the congregation that he had under consideration several calls to churches elsewhere, and that his resignation will be effective beginning the first of December. The fact that Rev. Mr. Johnson has decided to leave Wilmington came as a distinct surprise to the members and friends of the church, who expressed themselves as exceedingly regretful. He is an earnest worker and preacher and during his pastorate here has endeared himself to all with whom he has become acquainted.

NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

Interesting Review of Political Outlook by Committeeman Josephus Daniels.

THE INSURANCE COMPANIES

Statement by Commissioner—Laurinburg Hospital Incorporated—State Fair Opening Today—Number of Features of the Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., October 12.—That it is the belief, amounting to a conviction, with Chairman Mack and others associated with him in the work at National Democratic headquarters in Chicago that Bryan's election is already assured, is the confident declaration of Editor Josephus Daniels, head of the press department of the National headquarters, here for a few days from his work at headquarters. He declares that he and his associates do not believe any conditions could arise to change this outcome of the great political struggle. Going into details, Mr. Daniels declared that a month ago there was a strong belief that Maryland and Ohio were doubtful States with the probability that both would go for Taft. Today it is assured that both will go for Bryan. Conditions, in Ohio, he says, cannot be understood without mingling with the people and talking with them. The Democrats are united as never before, confident and enthusiastic. Republicans are divided over the State ticket and Taft has not enough popularity to get the votes, there being more division and bitterness among the Republicans than ever known. In 1896 Bryan carried Ohio against McKinley, except the four big cities, these giving such majorities for McKinley as to put the State in the Republican column. This time the Republicans, he says, concede that the labor vote in these big cities will go largely for Bryan, making his victory in Ohio practically certain. Every one of the western States show big gains for Democracy which is united and confident.

Mr. Daniels will go to New York for a few days later in the week. Conditions there he says are most reassuring for Democracy. Bryan and others of the ablest campaigners will spend the last week of the campaign in New York and if this State is carried then Bryan's majority will be simply tremendous. But if New York is lost there will still be a sure margin for Bryan's election. He says Bryan has not come South in this campaign because his advisors have insisted that he devote all his energies to doubtful States. He expects to come through the South sometime in November or December.

An official statement by the Commisioner of Insurance shows that there are 285 companies and associations regularly licensed to do business in the State. 40 of them being reserved life companies, 20 assessment life companies, 133 fire companies, 34 accident and surety companies, 57 fraternal orders and one live stock company.

The Laurinburg Hospital, (Inc.), is chartered with $25,000 capital by J. F. McNair, T. W. Pate and K. A. Blue.

Another charter is to the Boykin-Townsend Realty Co., Wilson, capital $25,000 by S. D. Boykin, R. E. Townsend and others.

Maj. W. A. Graham, appointed Commisioner of Agriculture to succeed the late S. L. Patterson, and Democratic nominee for re-election, is just in his office from a campaign trip and says the situation in North Carolina is very satisfactory for Democracy. He found some apathy but believes the voters will be gotten out and that this will mean the usual majority for Democracy. He goes next week to Nashville, Tenn., to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Southern Commissioners of Agriculture and Agricultural Workers.

The 48th annual North Carolina State Fair will open Tuesday morning, and exhibits, midway attractions and race entries give every assurance that all records for success will be broken. Unusual preparation in the city on the part of business men has been made in the way of special illumination, stringers of incandescent electric lights lining the principal streets, turning night into day and imparting an unusually brilliant aspect to the city's gay dress.

Notable among special meeting to characterize State fair week is the ninth annual meeting of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association on Tuesday afternoon and night. Hon. Thomas Nelson Page is to be the orator of the occasion. And the Patterson Loving cup is to be awarded for the next year for the best literary production. In the past this has been awarded to the lamented John Charles McNeill, to Dr. Edwin Mims for his "Sydney Lanier" and to Dr. Kemp Battle for his "History of the University of North Carolina." There will be an address on "John Charles McNeill, the Man and the Poet" by J. William Bailey.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Division, United Confederate Veterans will be held on Wednesday night, and on Thursday night there will be the annual meeting of the North Carolina Agricultural Society under the auspices of which the State fairs are given. The social side of the fair will include capital Club reception and dance Tuesday night, Coronation ball Wednesday night, Lady Marshal's Leap Year ball Thursday night and the grand marshal's ball of Friday night.

A charter is issued to the Bonlee and Western Railroad Company with principal office at Causey, Chatham county, to extend 14 miles through Chatham and Randolph counties to a point on Deep River. The capital is $150,000, incorporators C. C. Burns, J. H. Dunlap, W. T. Brooks, C. M. Andrews and others.

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET

Very Striking Testimonial by Vestry of Saint James to Retiring Rector, Rev. R. W. Hogue, Unanimously Adopted.

At a meeting of the vestry of Saint James held on last Thursday, the formal resignation of the beloved rector of the parish, the Rev. R. W. Hogue, was received and a very striking resolution and testimonial was unanimously adopted as an expression of the feeling of those with whom he has labored so faithfully during the past six years. The resolution or testimonial is as follows:

"It is perhaps without a parallel in the history of this parish that a rector has severed his relations under conditions which at once drew forth expressions of deep regret and sympathetic approval by the vestry, and yet this is the situation attending the resignation of our rector, the Rev. R. W. Hogue. During a service of six years as rector of this parish he has come to a position of influence in the community as great as that enjoyed by any minister of the gospel whose life and work have blessed the people of Wilmington, for his impress has not been limited either to his congregational or church relationships but has permeated the entire community irrespective of religious affiliations, so much so that expressions of appreciation have come from all quarters. In his labors among us he has ever shown the broad and sympathetic spirit of the Master, and proved himself a disciple of the great catholic gospel, which, disregarding class distinctions, recognizes in the masses the brotherhood of man. Coming among us a stranger and a youth, unheralded by reputation and unsupported by official influence, he at once won the respect and confidence of the community by his manly bearing, fearless utterance and self-sacrificing labors. His zeal in behalf of personal purity and public righteousness quickly brought him into touch with both the individual life and public aspirations of the community, and he has ever been a friend to the needy and the advocate of moral and spiritual progress. The seeds that he has sown here take deep root in our social and public thought, and their fruits will be a permanent monument to his life and labors among us.

"In losing Mr. Hogue's services we are conscious that his place will be difficult, if not impossible, to fill; nevertheless, we are reconciled to the loss, only because we realize that he goes to a field in which his special adaptability for work among young men will give opportunity for the exercise of an influence which we believe will be far reaching and permanent in its effects on the youth of the State. Not only will Chapel Hill offer an opportunity for reaching the greatest possible number of young men, but will at the same time offer facilities for study and development which we believe will bring Mr. Hogue to an early maturity of his powers and thus enable him to fulfill the great mission of preaching which his natural abilities so eminently qualify him for. Because of the close relationship of this community to the State University we feel that we lose Mr. Hogue only that we may gain him in a larger sense, in that his character and influence will be reflected in the lives of our sons to the upbuilding of a higher type of citizenship to the good of this community and to the honor of the State. Not only will his life and services among us and his care of our sons bind him to us in his work at Chapel Hill, but as this mission will be partially supported by this Diocese we will continue to sustain an official relationship to him which will be fruitful in current and sympathetic interest.

"In accepting Mr. Hogue's resignation we desire to put on record this expression of our appreciation of his services to this parish and community, and our confident belief in his greater usefulness at the State University. As one who has endeared himself to us by his loving offices we lend him to this greater field, and shall ever follow his work with a sympathy that will cause us to rejoice with him in his success."

Delightful Party at Winter Park.

The Christian Endeavor Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Miss Black, in Winter Park Gardens. Between 20 and 25 members took the car early in the evening for Winter Park and after the usual business of the Society had been disposed of, the members were guests of Miss Black for an altogether pleasant evening during which refreshments were served and numerous diversions were enjoyed.

DETROIT TAKES ONE

Third in World's Championship Baseball Series Won by The Tigers Yesterday.

DECISIVE SCORE 8 TO 3

Michigan Stock Considerably Strengthened as Result of Day's Game. Tyrus Cobb in Old Time Form Hits 'Em Hard—Sunday

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Detroit became a real contender for the world's baseball championship today when it defeated Chicago in a decisive fashion, 8 to 3.

Manager Jennings achieved this result with a change in his line up. Downs was put on the bench, and Schaefer was shifted from third to second base, Coughlin occupying the third sack.

Counting the world's series of last year, today's victory was the first Detroit had secured in eight championship contests. Mullin was steady throughout the game, holding Chicago to seven scattered hits, and passing only one man. Pfeister's left hand shoots for the most part failed to puzzle the Michigan batsmen. Besides issuing three passes, he was hit safely 12 times, two of the cluster being doubles and six of them occurring in one inning. It was this inning, the sixth, which gave the game to Detroit. The gray clad Tigers, two runs behind Chicago when the inning opened, came across the plate in a procession. The crowd with the exception of a minority from Detroit which enjoyed the proceedings hugely, pleaded with vociferous unanimity for the retirement of Pfeister. Manager Chance who failed to show any traces of embarrassment or displeasure at the way in which Detroit came up from behind and went ahead, smiled cheerfully and ignored the request.

Tyrus Cobb, idol of the Detroit enthusiast, whose playing was a great disappointment a year ago, came into his own. He batted like the natural hitter he is, and ran bases like a flash. His batting average for the day was 800. Out of five times up, he hit safely four times. His stinging single to right in the first drove in O'Leary with the first run of the game. In the fourth, he reached first base, but in the sixth he beat out his slow grounder scoring McIntyre. In the eighth, his sprinting enabled him to make a double of an ordinary single. In the next inning he singled, and he not only stole second, but also pilfered third by a narrow margin. He had no opportunities in the field. Others whose work contributed materially to the victory were O'Leary, Crawford and Rossman, each of whom made two hits, although Rossman and O'Leary were both charged with errors.

To Mullin, however, the greatest credit was awarded by the spectators. Even in the fourth inning, when all three Chicago's runs were scored, he never faltered. His nerve remained steady, his arm strong and his control excellent. The only base on balls which he allowed was turned into a run by Chicago.

Despite the fact that the sun shone brightly today and the temperature was higher than yesterday, only 14,543 paid admissions were registered at the various turnstiles, netting total receipts of $22,767. Dawn did not find the usual line of eager would-be purchasers at the ticket windows. It was 8 o'clock before a single line formed; and when play began, there were still vacant seats in the more distant bleachers.

The game was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock, but was postponed fifteen minutes, waiting for the arrival of late comers to fill the unoccupied seats.

Detroit was the first to score. In its half of the first inning, O'Leary with one out lined too hotly and awkwardly for Steinfeldt. He went to second on Crawford's out and came home on Cobb's single to short centre. Only one more hit and no runs was the best Detroit would do until the sixth, when the Detroiters, in a fine rally, came from behind and put the game safely away.

Mullin, the first man up walked. Mcyre singled to left and O'Leary laid down a nice bunt, which filled the bases, as Pfeister failed to catch Mullin at third. With none out, the Michigan contingent cheered wildly as Crawford came to bat. The sturdy centre fielder swung viciously and the resulting grounder was too hot for Chance to hold. While Chance was whirling frantically around seeking the ball, Mullin crossed the plate and the other runners advanced a base each. The fleet Cobb beat out his slow bounder to Tinker, and McIntyre scored. Rossman singled to right, scoring O'Leary and Crawford, while Cobb made the circuit from first to third. Hoffman captured Schaefer's fly to centre and with a perfect throw caught Cobb at the plate. Thomas' double to right scored Rossman but Evers caught him out at first. Pfeister held the Detroits hitless in the seventh, but he was pounded hard again in the eighth.

WHOSE THE FAULT.

A friend for whose opinion upon all questions, except those political, the Star has always entertained the highest regard, writes in protest to the injection of the negro into the present campaign, intimating a breach of faith on the part of Democrats by introducing the race question after the adoption of the constitutional amendment, which, by the way, was a Democratic measure in toto and one in which the Republican party had no part or parcel whatever.

We have not the slightest doubt but that upon the adoption of the amendment and the working out of the political salvation of the State and the South in the campaigns of 1898 and 1900 by the Democrats (and they alone) it was the purpose of the party left in power to eliminate the negro as a factor in Southern politics, but were they left unmolested in this resolution, and are they not now justified in calling attention to signs which seem to indicate a return to those conditions against which we fought so strenuously only a little while ago?

With the national Republican platform upon which Taft is now making his race for the presidency, going out of its way to declare its friendliness for the negro, the preservation of his "civil and political rights," the enforcement "in letter and spirit of the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution"; with the Ohio Republican platform, drawn by Roosevelt and Taft and presented to the country as the platform upon which Taft asked the nomination for the presidency, acclaiming its belief in the civil and political rights of the negro "in every State" and that "those legislative enactments that have for their real aim his disfranchisement for reason of color alone" should be met with a reduction of representation in Congress and the electoral college in all States of this Union where citizens are disfranchised; with a resolution threatening to cut down Southern representation seriously considered by the last Republican Congress; with the implied threat to abolish our "jim crow" car laws, in the language of the National Republican Campaign Text Book of 1904, which charges that "numerous Democratic Legislatures have enacted laws which make it impossible for a colored person of refinement to travel in decency or comfort from one part of a State to another;" with ex-Judge W. A. Montgomery, only last Friday night in Raleigh, introducing Republican nominee Cox and Republican Elector Settle, making a violent attack upon all the traditions of the South, defending the reconstruction tactics of the Republicans just after the war, denouncing in embittered language the Ku Klux Klan and its work for the protection of the defenseless women and children in the South during "those times that tried men's souls"—with all these and other things too fresh and vivid in the minds of those following current political events just now, we leave it to the reader to judge as to who is responsible for the revival of this race question in the present campaign and we respectfully submit that the Democratic party as the Anglo-Saxon party of the South would we recreant to its every trust, did it not call attention to these facts which so vitally concern us all, and which are so distasteful to our Republican brethren who would have us elevate our politics to a plane which does not extend too far back into the record.

FOOLISH EMPLOYERS WHO THREATEN VOTERS.

"Some months ago a Philadelphia manufacturing establishment announced that if Mr. Bryan were elected it would reduce its force and the wages of such of its men as it might retain; if Mr. Taft were elected, it declared at the same time, it would increase its force and the wages of its employes. Now, a manufacturing establishment at West Chester tells its workmen that in the event of Mr. Bryan's election its works must be closed until the stock it has on hand is reduced three-fourts. This declaration is inconsistently prefaced with the statement that "it has been and will be the universal rule of this establishment to in no way bring pressure for political purposes on employes."

"It may as well be made clear to these concerns that they have thus done more to injure Mr. Taft's prospects of election than to help them. We are in favor of Mr. Taft's election; we are working to secure it because of a belief that the continuation of the Republican policy is for the best interests of the country. But if his election must be accomplished by the degradation of workingmen in appeals to their fears or interests, he had better be defeated."

The above is an extract from the leading editorial of the Philadelphia Times of last Saturday, a true-blue Republican paper, one, as it says in the editorial, which favors Taft's election. But mark well the last sentence. It does not believe in intimidation of employes in mills and factories for the purpose of securing his election and it makes postive assertion of the fact that at least two such concerns have attempted to coerce their employes to vote for him under threat of reduction of wages or entire loss of the same. This Republican paper not only admits that such practices are being resorted to but it condemns them and says it would be better to have Taft defeated than for him to be elected by such methods.

There is where the Times shows its honesty—or its good politics, which? It knows that once it is understood among the mill and factory employers that they are being coerced into voting for Taft there is danger of this powerful class of citizenship arising in its might and denouncing the Republican party and its methods of attempting to control its vote—to make political slaves of its members. It further shows that the Republican party is getting uneasy about the labor vote; that it feels it slipping away and the wage-earner asserting his independence and standing on his rights as a free American citizen to vote as he chooses, all of which means that Bryan will get more of this vote than ever before. That the course being pursued by the Republicans will work loss to that party is seen by the Philadelphia paper and it warns its party against such practice. But the warning comes too late. The whole country has heard of the many attempts at intimidation and the wage-earners in the mills and factories have, through their organizations resented such proceedings. Let the attempted intimidation go on. Every such action makes votes for Bryan.

TAFT'S SOUTHERN TOUR.

Of Taft's visit to this State next Saturday the Greensboro Telegram says North Carolina will give him the glad hand but, while it regrets not to be accommodating, it can't do much in the way of voting for him." The Charlotte Observer, speaking of the Republican candidate's Southern tour and his disclaimer of any "illusions about receiving Southern votes" says the latter was the "well-judged utterance of a man who has a reputation for sense to maintain."

We do not understand why Taft should want to make this Southern tour. It is true he has nothing to lose by it, except that of valuable time which he might spend to greater advantage to his side at other points. He certainly can gain nothing by it in the way of securing electoral votes or even of increasing his popular vote in the States he will visit. He and his campaign managers know that the electoral vote of every Southern State is as much assured to Bryan as if the election had been held and the results announced in the latter's favor. Nor will Taft's tour reduce the majorities by which Bryan will carry these States. If it has any effect at all it will be to increase those majorities by arousing the Democrats and cause many heretofore indifferent ones to make up their minds to go to the polls. In any case—Taft or no Taft—Republicans will poll their full strength. The chief effort of the Democrats is to do the same. The visit of Taft to the South will help the Democrats in this matter in every State in which he will make a speech. The coming of the Republican presidential candidate will arouse party feeling and increase interest in the outcome of the election with many Democrats who otherwise would be too indifferent of results to take the trouble to go to the polls. For this reason the Democrats should welcome the Republican candidate to our State.

TAR HEEL SPEAKERS IN DEMAND

In no previous presidential campaign has there been such a demand in other States, especially in those classed as doubtful, for Democratic speakers from North Carolina. The Tar Heel orators have established a reputation as fine stump-speakers all over the country and during this campaign their voices will be raised in every section of the country in behalf of Democracy. Of these speakers the one in greatest demand is Governor Glenn, who has been in so much demand outside of his State that he has not been able to devote as much time as he would wish to the campaign in his own State. Our Governor has established a reputation as lecturer, orator an dstump-speaker as broad as the boundaries of our nation. The Governor is now wanted in half a dozen States or more.

A Texas man offers the Houston Post his mother-in-law to be raffled off for the benefit of the Democratic national campaign fund. We bet he is some mean Republican who wants to get rid of his mother-in-law and thinks that because the Democrats' fund is not near as big as the Republicans' they might help him in his contemptible scheme.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The whole South is suffering from our inflexible and inadequate banking system. We need asset currency more than insured deposits, but we need both. It is growing more and more that nothing is good collaterial except something which can be sold out in fifteen minutes on an exchange chiefly the exchanges in New York. Values of exchange stocks, bonds, cotton, corn wheat, etc., are, on exchanges above or below the real prices according as suits the gambler best. For gambling our system is superb. For facilitating the activities of the people our system is extremely poor.—Charlotte Observer.

—The Cincinnati Enquirer is taking a straw vote a secret ballot, of Ohio, with results as thus far disclosed, which are surprising and it may be significant. The net amount of it is that it shows marked Bryan gains; that many Republicans will vote for Bryan but few Democrats are found who will vote for Taft; that the Democratic State ticket is stronger than the national and that all in all the State is close. This suggests a Republican opinion from a high source that Ohio is really more doubtful than Indiana, which the Democrats, with a good show of reason, are claiming. It may be an election of great surprises.—Charlotte Observer.

—Among the many ridiculous things done by the present Administration few have come in for more ridicule than the riding and walking tests imposed upon field officers of the Army whose assignments to staff or bureau duty have taken them away from their regiments or who belong to permanent staff corps. If it were not for the fact that the rule has worked real hardship to many deserving and valuable officers it would be laughable. Last year the "officers' ride" took on the appearance of a jolly excursion into the country, with this difference, that it had no ostensible objective. This year the ride is to be 90 miles, or officers have the alternative of walking half that distance. Surprising as it may seem, many officers have elected to walk rather than ride.—New Orleans Picayune.

—"Moral support" for Turkey is said to be the immediate object of the assembling of warships by the British Government near the Dardanelles. It is a sign of a friendly sentiment which, at this time and in the existing situation, Great Britain may well feel for the unfortunate Turkish Nation. Of all the powers Great Britain now has the least selfish interest in the settlement of the Eastern question. If she can rely on the effectiveness of the entente with Russia, she has nothing to fear, as in former times, for the entire safety of the Suez route to India. She has no territorial possessions in the Balkan peninsula or adjacent to it, while her lease of Cyprus no longer answers any imperative purpose. The amity she has maintained toward Turkey in the past, often with the greatest difficulty and at some moral sacrifice, was dictated by prudence. With the revolution in Turkey and the advent of the patriotic and liberal-minded Committee of Union and Progress now in practical control of Turkish affairs, Great Britain may honorably feel real friendship where formerly she had only a desire for safety.—New York Times.

—The Washington Post is informed by a leading citizen of California that the State will go heavily for the Republican ticket, because "The people believe in the President, and they regard Taft as the only man who will carry out his policies." That is in the West. The campaign for Taft in the East is conducted with a view to convincing the people that he will not follow in the footsteps of the President but will substitute emollients for blisters and give the corporations a rest. The New York Evening Post so explains the apparent inconsistency with which its columns at the same time scarify Roosevelt and advocate Taft's election. The Post says that Taft will not carry out the Roosevelt programme but will be a sane and conservative ruler if elected. The Sun occupies practically the same position: Lambastes the President in one paragraph and lauds his pet protege in the next. This is a big country. It is a far cry from California to Manhattan. But query: Can this double game be kept up until election day without popular detection? The straddle is too wide to escape observation. If the Western Progressives are right in their statement of Taft's ultimate purpose then the Eastern Reactionaries are leaning on a broken reed, and vice versa. One side or the other is going to be flimflammed. Which is it?—Virginian Pilot.

THE BALKAN SITUATION

England Agrees to a Conference—Surprise at Her Change of Position—Won Over by Russia Conferference Embraces Whole.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

London, Oct. 12.—M. Iswolsky, the Russian Minister, has succeeded in impressing upon Sir Edward Grey, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs the necessity that not only should a conference of the powers be held to settle the crisis in the Near East, but that this conference should take under advisement other questions besides those involved in the annexation by Austria of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the declaration of Bulgarian independence.

This change of front on the part of Great Britain, which has caused great surprise, was announced by the foreign office at the conclusion of a long conference between Sir Edward Grey and M. Iswolsky, after a meeting of the Cabinet in the morning, at which Sir Edward set forth the position he had taken and explained the views of the Russian Foreign Minister. Sir Edward's secretary in making the announcement said:

"It may be affirmed with certainty that both Ministers concur in the necessity for a conference and that the pourparlers at the Foreign Office, following as they do, upon the Franco-Russian negotiations on the same subject, have smoothed away some of the difficulties which were in the way. It is now regarded as probable that the latest events in the Near East also necessitate the enlarging of the scope of the questions to be discussed at the conference."

Further than this nothing could be ascertained officially as to the questions M. Iswolsky desires to include. In fact, it is doubtful if it has been decided what shall be taken up in addition to the two actions which brought about the crisis, for it was intimated that the pourparlers at the British Foreign Office have not yet been concluded and may continue for several days.

It is doubted whether Russia is anxious to re-open the Dardanelles for the present, for if this is done, it must be for all nations, and Russia is not likely to desire that, while her fleet is so weak. Besides, other treaties in addition to the treaty of Berlin would be involved.

The only part in her previous stand Great Britain is continuing to insist upon apparently is that no modification of a treaty can be permitted without the consent of all parties to that treaty, and at her proposal the Powers have instructed their Ambassadors at Constantinople to re-affirm this principle. What end can be served by this is not stated by the Foreign Office, but is can hardly be expected that either Bulgaria or Austria-Hungary will consent to restore the legal status in Bulgaria and Bosnia and Herzegovina before the questions of independence and annexation are considered, as the Powers have decided must be done with respect to the island of Crete.

A GIRL'S PITIFUL STORY.

She Tells Why She Shot Her Husband to Death.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 12—That she was sold for $100 and forced by her father to marry a man she did not love was the statement made today by 17-year-old Julia Magdalin, who last Saturday shot and killed Tony Madlin, to whom she was married four months ago. The girl said she had no regret for her act. "I was ill and lying on the bed when he came in Saturday night," said she. "He asked me why supper was not ready and I told him I was not well enough to get it. Then he ordered me to get up and close a window. I said I could not and he struck me. He beat me and kicked me, and then taking out his knife, said he would kill me. I ran around him and got the revolver and when he made as if he would stab me, I killed him."

The position of Magdlin's body when found by the police indicated that he had been deliberately fired upon from the back while he sat at the supper table. A knife was found on the body.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

Plenty More Like This in Wilmington.

Scores of Wilmington people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Joseph Vereen, 722 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: Some time ago I strained myself while lifting and soon after my back became very lame and sore. I could not stoop without having sharp pains shoot through my body. My kidneys also bothered me and I had a constant desire to pass the secretions, particularly at night. I could get nothing to relieve the trouble until I purchased Doan's Kidney Pills at Robert R. Bellamy's drugstore. The use of two boxes stopped the pain in my back and corrected the action of my kidneys. I very willingly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

Should a Man Economize On His Clothes?

If we had high-priced clothing to sell, we could probably convince you that you couldn't afford to wear cheap clothing.

No man can afford to wear clothes that discount him in the eyes of everybody he meets. But you can't walk a block in this city without passing many men who are wearing clothing that sets badly on them; is curled at the edges, and drawn out of shape—because they paid a few dollars less for it than they would have need to pay for perfect-fitting clothes.

And the perfect-fitting clothing would not only make them look better and feel better every minute they had it on, BUT WOULD WEAR HALF AS LONG AGAIN, at least, and so be cheaper in the end than the clothes that never gave any satisfaction, first or last.

But, while SOLKY CLOTHING is the BEST that is known, ready-made, in style, workmanship and finish, it costs just about the same as the less worthy kinds.

Men's Sack Suits, $15 to $28
Men's Fall Overcoats, $15 to $25
Men's Raincoats, $15 to $25

MEN'S COLORED STIF BOSOM SHIRTS.

Many men of the very best taste insist upon wearing stiff-bosom shirts. We have provided two unusually handsome lines in patterns that will suit the most fastidious. Made of fine percales in beautiful printings. Some of the shirts are made coat style with attached cuffs, at $1.50 EACH; others, open front and back, with attached or separate cuffs $1.00 EACH.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Nine Defendants Told Their Troubles, Several Going to Roads.

Only nine defendants sat on the bench of everlasting mourning at the Monday session of police court yesterday and a majority of those went to the roads and farm.

Dock Fewell, colored, arrested for an assault on his wife by Officer D. W. Coleman, took 30 days on the highways. Jordan McIver presented a comparatively clean record and some evidences of reformation, whereupon judgment was suspended. Katie Brooks, colored, was twice guilty of disorderly conduct, and was given 60 days on the farm, the arrest having been by Officer F. George. Rosco Bizzell, also arrested by Officer George for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs, after which he was taken before the court of Justice Bornemann and gave $50 bond with Elijah Green as surety to keep the peace toward his wife and all other persons for 60 days. Pat Ruddy, a sailor, was only drunk and down when picked up by Officer Jesse Brown Saturady night, and he was let off with the costs. William Moore, colored, drunk and down, arrested by Officer Coleman, couldn't pay $5 and costs and went to the roads. William Armstrong, colored, arested by Officer R. L. Rouse for disorderly conduct, was given 30 days on the roads.

Johnnie Turner, a small colored bootblack, arrested by Officer M. P. Newton for throwing empty polish bottles in the street in front of the Masonic Temple Sunday evening, was let go upon condition that his parents soundly thrash him, which they did.

MR. D. H. CRENSHAW APPOINTED

Becomes Chief Claim Clerk of C. & W. C. Railroad at August.

The following from a recent issue of the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle will be read with interest by a number of friends in Wilmington:

"Mr. W. M. Alexander, chief claim clerk of the C. & W. C. railroad, headquarters in Augusta, has resigned his position here in order to go into business with his father, Gen. E. P. Alexander ,in Georgetown, S. C. His many friends here wish him much success in his new work.

"Mr. D. H. Crenshaw, of Wilmington, N. C., who has been associated with the Atlantic Coast Line in the freight claim department, in that city for some time past, has accepted the position left vacant by Mr. Alexander's resignation."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Central of Georgia railway was held in Savannah yesterday. The only change made in the direc torate was the election of R. S. Lovett, of New York, to succeed Stuart R. Knott. There was no change of officers. The Ocean Steamship Company elected the same directors and officers.

man beat out a pretty bunt, sending Cobb to third. Schaefer flew out to right, and Rossman moved up to second on Schulte's throw to the plate, holding Cobb at third. Thomas walked, filling the bases. Cobb scored on Coughlin's out to Sheckard. Mullin hit safely to Chance, scoring Rossman.

The story of Chicago's scoring is not a long one although it looked in the fourth inning as if the world's champions were going to make it three straight. After striking out Sheckard, Mullen gave Evers his base on balls and the little second baseman, being caught off first by Mullin, raced to second, and was safe on Rossman-s high heave. Schulte fouled out, but Chance singled, scoring Evers. Chance stole second and came home when Coughlin made a bad throw of Steinfeldt's grounder. Steinfeldt scored Chicago's third and last run when Hoffman tripled on a line over Coughlin's head.

President C. W. Murphy, of the Chicago team, remained in his office throughout the game, owing to a severe cold. He stated that he would not accompany the team to Detroit to see the games tomorrow and Wednesday, as his doctor had advised him to cure his present indisposition before further exposing himself. ### The Sunday Game.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—After eight innings of clock-work baseball today "wild Bill" Donovan, premier pitcher of the champions of the American League, weakened under the prolonged strain and the Chicago world's champions captured their second game of the present series, 6 to 1.

Detroit's hopes, which were high after seven innings in which Chicago had made only one hit, were dashed in the eighth. In that sensational portion of the game Donovan was hit for a home run, a triple, a double and three singles. Incidentally he walked one man and allowed another to score on a wild pitch. Overall, on the contrary, was steady throughout the game holding the "Tigers" to four hits and one run. That run marked Detroit's despairing effort in their half of the ninth.

The Theatre

The Crystal Palace this week has, it is said, a bill of much brightness and cleverness. In fact, as the programme presented to one as he or she enters the attractive little playhouse says, its the "strongest bill yet." The new bill opens with Harry St. Clair, who does an absurd, decidedly ludicrous "silly kid" act. Then comes Emmett and Lower, who introduce something unique and funny in a kids' pastime act and in which are introduced some skilled clarinet playing and eccentric dancing. Next, comes John Dapp, who has all dancers who have yet appeared at the Palace looking like cripples. He presents a whirlwind dancing "stunt" that is decidedly clever and yesterday called for several encores at each performance. The show is closed by Sprague and Dixon, who are seen in a mirth provoking comedy sketch and in which Billy Sprague appears as a jolly Dutchman.

Beautiful Women in "The Traitor."

Any play, the scenes of which are laid in the South requires the most beautiful women in the cast. Recognizing this fact Manager George H. Brennan has engaged for "The Traitor" not only clever actresses who can win the plaudits of the public by their artistic work but he has also gathered together in this organization a bevy of beauties whose personal pulchritude is sure to attract admiration and attention wherever the company plays. Among fair feminine are Catherine Tower, Marion Willard, Lydia Knott and Vira Barker. "The Traitor" will be seen at the Academy of Music Wednesday, Oct. 21st. Matinee and night. Seats on sale Friday Oct. 16th at Plummer's.

Mason-Newcomb Stock Co.

The Mason-Newcomb Stock Company made its initial bow to Wilmington theatre-goers last night, opening a week's engagement at popular prices at the Academy. The performance, which was a good one, was witnessed by a large audience. The play was "Midnight in Chinatown" and was something new to local play goers, a delightful innovation, as often repertoire companies present old plays under new titles. The piece last night was a success. The plot was an interesting one and there was a pleasing atmosphere about the performance that delighted all. The climaxes were stirring and called for hearty applause, while the comedy work was bright and crisp. The specialties were feature ones and really made up a splendid vaudeville performance with the dramatic presentation.

Tonight the company will be seen in a big production "A Country's Girl Romance", and the specialties will be entirely different from those given last night. Seats for tonight are now on sale at Plummer's, prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents.

CAMPAIGN IN THE EAST

Reports from Eastern counties in this immediate section indicate that during the past week a vigorous campaign was waged by Democratic speakers, notably Presidential Elector H. L. Cook, of Cumberland, who has just completed a canvass of Columbus, making six speeches and one at Fairmont, in Robeson county, and Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress, who has just completed a canvass of several counties in the district, speaking yesterday at Jones' Cross Roads and coming now to meet his appointments for a tour of the district with his Republican opponent, Colonel A. H. Slocomb, of Cumberland. Both Mr. Cook's and Mr. Godwin's speeches were strong, logical and convincing, appealing for the support of the ticket in the Nation, State, county and township. Good results to the party will be shown from these speeches in the election next month, according to all advices from the district.

Tomorrow Mr. Cook will speak at the Democratic County Convention of Brunswick at Lockwoods Folly and will join Mr. Godwin for his debate here with Colonel Slocomb on Thursday night. The speaking will take place in the Court House and a large crowd is expected to hear the issues of the day discussed by the speakers.

Mr. Godwin spoke Friday evening in the graded school building at Cerro Gordo and was introduced by Mr. H. D. Williamson. A large crowd was present and heard an able discussion of the political issues. His references to the handsome new school building were happy and quite pleasing to the large number of people present.

Mr. Cook spoke Friday night, following a great sale of town lots that attracted many people to that progressive little city, at Fairmont, Robeson county. His contrast of the two parties was striking and left no doubt in the mind of the voters as to which he should extend his allegiance. His discussion of the tariff, the guarantee of deposits, the panic, the Republican record in this State and kindred topics in a masterly way and in a way which made votes for the party there.

THE DANGERS ARE EXPLAINED

Consequences of Neglect and Abuse Pointed Out by The Lecturer.

Information of Great Value and Timely Advice Given by Col. Dillingham's Lecturer Saturday Night in an Address Delivered to a Large Audience at Fourth and Castle.

The Dillingham free entertainment and lecture at the corner of Fourth and Castle streets continues to draw larger crowds at each performance. An amusement bill of exceptional merit was presented by the Plant Juice comedians Saturday night, which brought many expressions of approval from the audience.

The lecture delivered by Col. Dillingham's assistant, Mr. Alva A. Mills, was of a particularly instructive nature. The speaker devoted his remarks to the small things in every day life that furnish disease with an opportunity for attacking the health; the dire consequences that follow these little indescretions and habits of carelessness were pointed out to the audience in such a clear and convincing manner as to be comprehended by all. Mr. Mills warned his hearers against the dangers of over eating and irregular meals, which are sure to result in a disordered stomach and impaired digestion, and the importance of regular habits in caring for the health was explained in detail.

"Nine out of ten cases of ill health can be directly traced to some neglect of the natural laws of living, or abuse of Nature," said Mr. Mills during the course of his lecture. "Fortunately, Nature does not immediately strike back in resentment for this neglect, but sends a warning in the shape of some mild attack of sickness, or slight disorder of the system, and the man who ignores this signal of danger deliberately throws down the gauntlet to disease and invites his own end."

The digestive organs, liver, kidneys and blood are Nature's favorite points for delivering these warnings of impending suffering and death, as the impairment of any one of these vital functions will eventually result in the whole system becoming weakened to such an extent that fatal maladies can enter at will and the victim falls an easy prey. Mr. Mills carefully explained the manner in which Plant Juice corrected the disorders of these primary seats of disease and called attention to the case of C. W. Kidd, of Bessemer, Ala., who writes Col. Dillingham as follows

"For six years I have suffered with a stomach disorder called gastritis, or catarrh of the stomach. At times it would cause me intense suffering in the pit of my stomach and bring out attacks of palpitation of the heart, which would make me so weak that I would have to lay off from my work for weeks. I consulted many doctors and used hundreds of patent medicines but they did me no good and left me worse every time. I began taking Dillingham's Plant Juice and slept better that night than I had for five years. I have now taken two bottles and am entirely well; not a pain in my body; can eat anything I want and sleep like a babe."

This is an example of the effectiveness of Plant Juice in the treatment of disease of this nature, and is only one of hundreds of similar cases in which the merit of his remarkable medicine has been proved beyond all doubt.

Horse Case in Court.

In the court of Justice Bornemann yesterday there was an interesting hearing of a suit brought by Mr. J. C. Warren, of Clinton, against Mr. N. E. Gallagher, of this city, the action being for $150, the purchase price of a horse which Mr. Warren some time ago disposed of to Mr. Gallagher. The plaintiff was represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq., and Mr. Gallagher by A. J. Marshall. The defense was that the horse was not as represented, being a balker and minus certain other qualities, and a counter-claim of $101.75 was also set up. After hearing much testimony and the argument of attorneys, the court held that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover from which judgment Mr. Gafford gave notice of an appeal.

Rounds of Country Townships.

Sheriff Cowan, through his deputy, Mr. W. H. Cox, yesterday began his rounds of the country townships of New Hanover for the colection of taxes. Deputy Cox was yesterday at Masonboro Hall, Masonboro township; today he will be at Stokley's Store, Wrightsville; tomorrow he will be at the Seven Mile Post, Harnett township; Thursday at Capps' store, Federal Point, and Friday at Castle Haynes, Blossom's store, in Cape Fear township. Taxes should be paid now to avoid costs provided by law against delinquents.

The Manassas, Va., grand jury yesterday indicted Tucker Posey and his wife, Minnie Posey, for complicity in the murder of Edward Fair on Thursday night, near Canova, this county. Bail was fixed at $500 each for appearance at the December term of court.

CAUGHT LARGE SHARK.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Oct. 12.—On Saturday a fishing party composed of Mr. Chas. H. Fisher, of Edgefield, S. C.; Commander Harry Phelps, of the U. S. Navy, and Mr. James W. Thompson, of Southport, on the launch May Phelps, went to Southern Rock, about three miles off shore from Fort Fisher, and after catching a number of black fish and other varieties, Mr. Fisher called for assistance as he had hooked a larger fish than he could land alone. He was using a lancewood rod, an expert reel with No. 15 linen line and a small trout hook. It took over an hour to tire out and land on the boat a man-eating shark that measured 7 1-2 feet long and weighed 135 pounds, when it was placed on the wharf on their return.

This shark is said to be the largest fish ever caught at Southport with a rod and line, and attracted quite a crowd to the wharf to see it weighed.

Rev. Mr. Miler Sunday Evening.

At St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church Sunday night, Rev. C. B. Miller, financial agent of the Home Mission Department of the Lutheran Synod in this State, preached an instructive sermon, adapted to home mission work, and enthused much interest among religious workers. Rev. Mr. Miller resides at China Grove, and his work requires occasional visits to the various Lutheran churches throughout the State.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Charlotte Observer: It will be noticed in the line up of the two championship teams, Chicago and Detroit, that Oak Ridge Institute is represented on both, by Del Howard on the former and George Suggs on the letter.

—Industrial News: Today makes the beginning of Greensboro's celebration of the city's one hundredth anniversary. Eight days will be given over to the celebration, and within the time will be witnessed fitting observance of the first days in our history as these are best demonstrated after a century of growth.

—Durham, Oct. 10.—W. T. Garrett, fifty years of age, a one legged and one armed man, was drowned four miles north of the city last night by falling into a mud hole while under influence of whiskey. The county coroner was summoned and came back from there this afternoon. The man was driving a blind horse and the animal fell down an embankment and Garrett fell in a hole of water not over twenty inches deep. He was found today.

—Kinston Free Press: A very strange burglary was committed Thursday night in Kinston. Some one entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loops, while they were peacefully slumbering the hours away and helped themselves to the clothing of Mrs. Loops, and children. All other property was left untouched. The clothing and watch of Mr. Loop's was not disturbed. In fact all the family jewelry was at the disposal of the thief, who left it alone.

—New Bren Journal: The case against Mr. Green, an old Confederate soldier, who was charged by a negro, Tobe Fulcher, with selling liquor, was nol prossed yesterday, and Mr. Green allowed to go upon payment of a certain proportion of the cost. This is the case wherein a man of good character, a confederate veteran, was held in a bond of one thousand dollars for appearance by a justice of the peace on the unsupported evidence of a negro loafer, on a charge of selling a half pint of liquor.

—The Montgomerian: Montgomery county has always been noted for its gold, and the recent discovery on Mr. Calvin Sedberry's land near Onvill seems to have excited more people than former discoveries. A vein has been found that has fine ore and it seems to be very rich. The surface around the vein pans well. It is said that a man can make over a hundred dollars a day panning there. It is thought that this will prove to be the richest mine ever discovered in the county. Mr. C. A. Armstrong has just secured a bond on the property.

—Charlotte Observer: If the fire department only had hose enough, 68 streams of water might be concentrated on any fire in the business section of the city and no one hose would be more than 500 feet long. This statement, a remarkable one considering the fact that New York boasts of the fact that 54 streams can be converged on any one block within a special area in the metropolis, was made yesterday by one of the officials connected with the city waterworks system. This showing, he added, eclipsed that of any other city of equal size in the South and was equal to that of cities twice and three times the population of Charlotte.

—Smithfield, Oct. 10.—J. Elwood Cox, Republican candidate for Governor, and Tom Settle spoke in the court house here today. The speaking was widely advertised all over the county to take place at 11, but at that time the crowd was so small it was decided not to begin until 12 o'clock. When Cox commenced speaking there were only 156 persons present, although Republican leaders were boasting of more than one thousand. Cox brought out nothing new, simply announced his candidacy, declared himself a lifelong prohibitionist and quit. When Settle began speaking the crowd had grown by actual counting to 238. Of this number 55 were true-blue democrats, 14 small boys and 24 negroes.

—Danville Register: The gallows has disappeared from Virginia. No more will gaping, curious crowds craine their necks to see nor pick up their ears to hear as a condemned man expiates his crime. Unfortunately, many executions have been more or less public, and have been witnessed by morbidly curious crowds. Hereafter all criminals condemned to death are to be executed in the State penitentiary and the electric chair has been substituted for the ghastly gibbet. By sending a current of electricity through the vital parts of the human antomy, death is quickly and painlessly produced and the executions are private. The first execution by electricity will occur next Tuesday, when Henry Smith, a negro convicted of twice assaulting an aged woman, will pay the extreme penalty. Four others will be executed in the same way during this month or in the first week in November.

—Greensboro Record: Yesterday afternoon in U. S. Court upon petition of Mr. Ceasar Cone, receiver for the Odell Manufacturing Company, and in consonance with a recent resolution of the creditors' committee, an order was made by Judge Boyd for a sale of the property on November 25th. The report of Receiver Cone showed that since he was appoined receiver, nearly two years ago he has handled a million and a half dollars in connection with the operation of the properties and of two hundred and ten thousand dollars insurance on stock, machinery and buildings. But every dollar has been paid without litigation and no other litigation has occurred outside of the necessary bankruptcy proceedings. Judge Boyd orders the following allowances to be paid as administrative expenses, saying that he would make a further allowance for the receiver: creditors' committee three thousand dollars; counsel fees, ten thousand dollars; Caesar Cone, receiver, twenty thousand dollars.

—Greensboro Telegram: The publication of the first volume of Capt. S. A. Ashe's narrative History of North Carolina is announced through Mr. Charles L. Van Nopen of this city. This volume was promised for publication some months ago and has been anxiously expected by a large list of advanced subscribers who have felt the need of such a work and who will want it for constant consultation. The publication has been delayed by many causes, not the least of them being the extreme anxiety of the author, editor and publisher to make this volume come up to the high watermark of modern historical scholarship. All those concerned in the publication believe that this has been done and they submit the volume to the scholars of the country with the utmost confidence believing that they have produced a book in which shows the best results in writing the early history of the colony and State which are to be had in the present condition of our records.

Sagacity of the Ancients.

Many quotations came from the works of Thales, the Greek philosopher and one of the seven wise men. It was he who said, "Know thyself." "Few words are a sign of prudent judgment." "Search after wisdom and choose what is most worthy." "There is nothing more beautiful than the world." "Time is the wisest thing, for it invents and discovers all things." He also said that it was the hardest thing in the world to know oneself and the easiest to admonish another. In his youth Thales was urged to marry, but he said, "It is too soon," and later in life upon being urged again he said, "It is too late."

Where the Relief Would Be.

Dr. Story, the late principal of Glasgow university, taking a holiday in the country once, was met by the minister of the district, who remarked: "Hello, principal! You here? Why, you must come and relieve me for a day." The principal replied, "I don't promise to relieve you, but I might relieve your congregation."

Coming and Going.

"What kick have you against married life?"

"Well, if I don't keep my wife dressed in the height of fashion I have trouble with her, and if I do keep her dressed in the height of fashion I have trouble with her dressmaker."—

The Medicines That are Fast Bringing Andes a Fortune

ACCOMPLISH GREAT RESULTS.

Mr. Andes, who is making an extensive tour of all the leading Southern cities and giving his lectures on good health ,has already earned for himself the cognomen of "The Great Andes" owing to his dashing methods and his unusual ability as an orator. He is fast making a fortune from the sale of his Great Prescription and Oil. Two medicines that have real merit. After finishing a course of his lecture the public is always loathe to see him leave. He carries with him a corps of competent assistants who are ever ready to do his bidding.

While his headquarters were crowded to its fullest in Nashville, where people in all walks of life was represented, a man elbowed his way to the side of Mr. Andes, and putting out his hand, said: "I am J. E. Collins, of 1122 N. College St., have been living in Nashville nearly two years. Came from near Columbia to this place. While living there was stricken down with Rheumatism; confined to my bed for twelve months; my hands were drawn beyond description and was not able to raise my arm. I lost flesh until only weighed 113 pounds; read in the papers of your Great Medicine; purchased and used your Great Prescription and Oil; was entirely cured of my stiffness and all signs of Rheumatism have disappeared; now weigh 145 pounds; am a carpenter; work every day and feel as good as I ever felt in my life."

Mr. Charles Schutt, of College and Cass Sts., was the next one to tell of his recovery. He said: "I am a baker; my age is 61; for five years past, my trouble has been with my Stomach and Heart. When I finish my meals I would have a great deal of gas on my stomach, and sometimes would belch up hot water. The doctor told me it was water brash, if I worked a little fast, would have fluttering at heart and shortness of breath; was weak and run down. I have used only one bottle of your Prescription and it has already done me great good."

The Andes Medicines are popular in this city and we are exclusive agts.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 21.—While the cotton market reacted after a sharp opening gain today, the close was steady in tone, and prices were 8 to 13 points net higher. Sales were estimated at 150,000 bales.

The market opened firm at an advance of 10 @ 17 points with the active months selling 11 to 17 points higher during the first few minutes on active covering and fresh buying for long account which appeared to be the result of better Liverpool cables than expected and reports that the Manchester labor trouble had been practically settled. Later cables, however, suggested than Lancashire masters might not accept the proposition of the operatives to resume work at a 5 per cent. reduction in wages with the privilege of re-opening the question at the end of three montas; the weather map showed no killing frost over Sunday; there was a renewal of Southern selling and with heavy profit taking at the advance the market eased off during the forenoon and at one time sold within 3 or 4 points of Saturday's final. As realizing sales were well absorbed, the market steadied up again during the afternoon and the close was within 3 or 4 points of the best on active months. The big estimates for tomorow's receipts at leading points favored the reaction during the middle session and the Southern selling was thought to be largely in the way of hedges.

Receipts at the ports today were 57,071 bales, against 51,723 last week and 49,920 last year. For the week, 350,000 bales against 340,922 last week and 275,752 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 9,244 bales, against 5,115 last year and at Houston 12, 625, against 8,661 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points advance: middling uplands 9.20; middling gulf 9.45. Sales none.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 12.—The price level in the New York stock market adjusted itself almost spasmodically to the better outlook today for peaceful settlement of the near eastern question in European politics. So suddenly was the change effected that uncovered bears had every chance to meet their requirements left over from short sales last week. Demand from this element in the speculation was conspicuous in the arbitrage operations for London account, where a fortnightly stock exchange settlement is imminent. The relaxation of the war scare was effective in all mediums of the financial and commercial markets. Foreign exchanges ran off in continuation of the movement already perceptible on Saturday and the likelihood of gold exports at present seemed much diminished. There was a mood of congratulation over the demonstrated absorptive power of the New York market in view of the admitted volume of last week's foreign liquidation which is placed by competent authorities from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000. With the removal of the foreign selling pressure, the organized control of the stock market was prompt to replace prices at a level to compensate for last week's declines. The first prizes represented the greater part of the advances effected during the day. Then came a pause and a lapse into pronounced dullness. This disinclination to pursue the upward movement might be construed to mean remaining doubts and apprehensions over the foreign political position, or desire to await the election outcome. Reports of a coming settlement of the labor controversy in the English cotton milling industry were received with satisfaction and caused an advance in the price of cotton. Discounts receded in London and Berlin, but Paris again took up the bulk of London's weekly supply of gold. The feeling of reserve toward the advance here was somewhat enhanced when foreign exchange rates recovered late in the day and call money rates stiffened slightly.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, were $4,154,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 584,000 shares.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

No More Greasy Doughnuts.

"For years, after preparing doughnuts with the utmost care, I was disappointed to see them come out greasy and unwholesome looking. However, with my first use of Cottolene for frying them, I was delighted, as they were brown, crisp and delicious."

For making doughnuts, pastry, light bread and flaky biscuits I prefer Cottolene to any other shortening on the market. We even carry a pail of it on our annual camping trips through the mountains."

Cottolene is a vegetable oil cooking fat, made by The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago, and is much purer and more wholesome than lard. It is carried by all good grocers.

BRYAN ATTACKS HUGHES' IDEAS

New York Governor's Views on Publicity of Funds and Democratic Remedy for Trusts

BASIS OF BRYAN'S SPEECH

President Preferred Theories Advanced by Mr. Hughes in Preference to Candidate Taft — Spoke at Lincoln.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—In an address at the State University this afternoon, William J. Bryan attacked the arguments of Governor Hughes, of New York, in defense of the Republican platform, dwelling on the difference between the two platforms relating to publicity of campaign contributions and discussing the propriety of President Roosevelt's supporting Mr. Taft.

Delivered forcibly and in Mr. Bryan's best style, his speech was repeatedly cheered by the University students. He said in part:

"Governor Hughes, of New York, has been put forward as the champion of the Republican party to attack the Democratic remedy for trusts, and the President seems to prefer the argument advanced by Mr. Hughes to that advanced by Mr. Taft. I can fairly assume, therefore, that the argument presented by Mr. Hughes is not only the strongest that has been presented, but that the strongest that can be presented by Mr. Roosevelt would not put him against our platform if he were not the strongest opponent. He has been sent through the West to strengthen the Republican lines. I desire to remind you, in the first place, that Mr. Hughes represents the Eastern Republicans, not the Western Republicans. He was one of the candidates against Mr. Taft when Mr. Taft was being urged as the representative of the administration. Mr. Hughes' friends joined with the friends of Mr. Cannon, Mr. Knox and Mr. Fairbanks in the effort to prevent the nomination of Mr. Taft. It is only fair to assume, therefore, that Mr. Hughes is not a reformer in the sense to which that term is used by the Republicans of the West.

"As an evidence that Mr. Hughes is not in sympathy with Western reforms, you will recall that he voted a two-cent passenger rate bill, and he did this, in spite of the fact that a Republican legislature of New York passed the bill. The Governor in the Western States signed this bill and we are now enjoying the benefits of the two-cent fare. New York is more thickly settled than the Western States and yet he gave the benefit of the doubt to the railroads in their contest with the patrons. I will not say he did this because of the contributions made to his campaign fund by Morgan, Depew, the Vanderbilt's and one of the Goulds. It is not necessary to assume that these contributions had any effect upon his action. It is enough to know that he did not act upon this subject as Republican Governors in the West acted, and I care not what explanation his friends may make. If they say that he decided in favor of the railroads, without any reference to the contributions made by the railroads, it simply shows that he looks at questions from the standpoint of the railroad rather than from the standpoint of the patrons. If he had signed the bill, the railroads could have protected themselves by recourse to the courts, but when he voted the bill, the people had no recourse.

"It is true that he should expose the Democratic remedy on the trust question, for he has never shown any interest in the correction of the evils that the trusts have brought upon the country. I will not say that this partiality for the trusts is due to the contrbutions made to his campaign fund by Carnegie, Havenmeyer, Duke and others. It is not necessary to assume that these contributions influenced him at all. It may be his natural disposition to take the side of the trusts as against the people."

REFUGE FOR KIDNAPPERS

Chicago Heiress Thought to be Held at Sparta, N. C.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Margaret Frances Mitchell, eight years old, said to be an heiress to a fortune of $250,000 was kidnapped while on the street with her grand mother. The little girl was snatched by one of three men in an automobile and taken away after the grand mother, Mrs. Caroline F. Mitchell had been knocked down. The police are working on a clue that the child was taken out of the city, probably to Sparta, N. C.

The kidnapping is said to be the climax of a prolonged struggle for possession of the girl. She has been living with her father Robert Mitchell 4829 St. Lawrence Avenue, while the mother Mrs. Margaret B. Mitchell has lived separately. The fortune was left to the girl by her mother's father.

According to the story told to the police by the grand mother threats of kidnapping previously had been made and because of this she always accompanied the girl to and from school. She urged the police to search at Sparta where it is said the mother recently lived.

Thirty or more vessels, storm bound in Hampton Roads, which put to sea with the fine weather of Sunday, were forced back yesterday by strong northeast winds and high seas. The vessels are at anchor in Hampton Roads.

THAW BACK IN ASYLUM

Wanted Jury Trial to Determine His Sanity and Justice Mills Remanded Him to Mattewan Hospital to Await Decision.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Harry K. Thaw will have to remain in the State hospital for the criminal insane at Mattewan, N. Y., until the Court of Appeals shall decide whether it is entitled to a hearing before a jury to determine the question of his sanity. Justice Mills, of the Supreme court refused a week or two ago to grant the application of Thaw's counsel for a jury trial on the sanity question, and decided to hear the case himself. The hearing was fixed for today. When Thaw was brought into court, his mother and several relatives were present. The prisoner's counsel again moved for a jury trial, and when this was denied, asked that Thaw be discharged from custody on the ground that the jury in the last trial for murder did not find him insane. This, also, was denied.

Thaw's counsel then declared that they had appealed to the New York State Court of Appeals from the decision refusing a jury trial, and that until the higher court had given a decision, they would submit no evidence on the question of Thaw's sanity.

Justice Mills said there was no other alternative than for Thaw to be returned to Mattewan asylum and he was ordered to be returned to that institution.

IRBY CARRIED TO COLUMBIA

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 12.—In charge of a special detail, John Irby, the negro charged with the attempted assault upon Miss Lillie Dempsey, of Saxon Mill community of Spartanburg, was brought to this city tonight and lodged in the penitentiary for safe keeping.

This step was taken by order of Sheriff J. M. Nichols, of Spartanburg, not because it was feared that the negro would be taken from the jail but because the keeping of him in Spartanburg would necessitate the holding together of the military companies on guard for at least one week.

Spartanburg is Quiet.

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 12.—The mob spirit caused by the arrest of John Irby a negro, for the alleged assault on Miss Lelia Dempsey on Saturday last, has practically died out.

Warrants were sworn out yesterday by Sheriff Nichols against many of the alleged leaders of Saturday night's mob and ten arrests have thus far ben made. All the troops have left.

JORDAN TO CALL CONVENTION

General Meeting Cotton Growers and Allied Interests.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 12.—Harvie Jordan, President of the Southern Cotton Association, announced today that in response to requests from all parts of the South, he would call a convention of cotton growers and allied interests similar to that held in New Orleans in 1905. Mr. Jordan stated today that he had decided to undertake an active and vogorous campaign for better prices and would this week issue a general call for a mass meeting of farmers, bankers, merchants and ginners to be held at some central point in the cotton belt, probably at Memphis. The convention he said, will not be confined to any particular organization.

ONE SHOWMAN KILLS ANOTHER

Japanese Acrobat Arrested for Murder at Newton.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 12.—Henry Yamaguchi, the Japanese acrobat and manager of Haw Brothers London Show, who yesterday murdered a fellow countrymen at Newton, this State today confessed his crime, declaring that he killed Kitsuchi because the latter had mistreated two little Japanese girls connected with the show under his care. After shooting his victim five times, he beat his head into a jelly with a stone. Following a preliminary hearing today Yamaguchi was held without bail for the next term of Catawba Superior Court.

BABY'S ITCH EASILY CURED

Infantile Eczema Quickly Relieved by External Use of Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

Infantile eczema, which has baffled the skil of the best physicians for so many years at last seems to be curable—and curable with great ease.

Results of the last two years indicate conclusively that baby's itch, infantile eczema and other skin diseases of children can be very simply cured by the application of a compound composed of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription.

The Rev. Lewis Steeley, of Weatherly, Pa., writes:

"Our baby boy's little face was so dreadfully covered with eczema that blood and water ran from the sores nearly all the time. After using 3 1-2 bottles of D. D. D. Prescription we are so happy to tell you he is entirely cured and the disease has never broken out again. If this letter is in any way a help to other sufferers, you may publish it."

If you have a child which is suffering with this terrible itch, we are sure you will not neglect one hour to give your baby the right kind of relief. We have seen too often how quickly the remedy mentioned above takes the itch away at once and how all the cures seem to be permanent; we have seen this too often to hesitate at all in recommending the remedy for your children. # CENTENNIAL EVENT IN GREENSBORO

PRESIDENT SENDS GREETING

Senator J. B. McCreary, of Kentucky, Makes Principal Address—Spectacular Parade at Formal Opening Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 12.—With fluttering flags, gorgeous decorations and surging crowds, the Greensboro Centennial was formally opened today. In the educational procession, it is estimated that there were 8,000 children, representing the various schools and colleges of the country.

The big auditorium was well nigh filled when Chairman Bradshaw called the gathering to order. "America," and "The Old North State," were sung by the school children. The address of welcome was delivered by Ashbel B. Kimball and responded to by Lieutenant Governor Francis D. Wilson, on behalf of the visitors from the State and by Rev. Turner Wharton, D. D., of Columbia, Tennessee, in behalf of the visiting ex-North Carolinians. The Centennial oration by Dr. George T. Winston, ex-president of the University of North Carolina, and ex-president of the University of Texas, was the principal feature of today's programme.

Late in the afternoon National troops and cavalrymen gave drill and parade exercises in the auditorium

The opening session of the Peace Conference was held at 2:30 P. M., in Smith Memorial Hall. In the absence of Governor Glenn, Lieutenant Governor Winston, presided over the meeting. Mayor L. J. Brandt delivered the address of welcome, after which United States Senator James B. McCreary, of Kentucky, delivered the principal address.

Upon motion of Colonel John S. Henderson, of Salisbury, N. C., a telegram was sent to President Roosevelt, congratulating him on his efforts for international peace and arbitration, and assuring him of the support of the North Carolina Peace Congress.

Tomorrow the good roads Congress of the Southern States will hold its first meeting. Also the battle of Guilford Court House will be reproduced by State and Federal troops.

At the opening of today's session, the following message from President Roosevelt was read:

"I wish I could be present at your Congress. As it is not possible may I ask through you to convey to those assembled the assurance of my hearty sympathy and my hope for a successful meeting.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

In conection with this letter there was read to the conference remarks of the President said to a delegation which called upon him to ask his attendance. The President was quoted in part as follows:

"I am glad that the North Carolina Peace Society has declared itself in favor of the adequate armament as well as effective arbitration. There is no inconsistency in advocating both of these things at the present time. On the contrary, those who have the public welfare at heart fail in the performance of a part of their duty if they neglect to labor for both. The growth of the acceptance of the principle of international arbitration is necessarily slow; we should do all we can to hasten it. It is well to remember that the acceptance of this principle in any measure whatever depends exclusively upon the effective support it receives from the half dozen powers of great warlike strength. As things actually are at the present day we are helpless to further the cause of peace and of effect international arbitration unless to just and peaceable arbitration intentions we add a stout heart and a strong arm—and this means military and naval preparedness to a far greater degree than is at present the case."

WARM WIRELETS.

Beyond the admission of twenty-one members of the bar, the Supreme Court of the United States, which convened at noon today for the 1908-09 term, transacted no official business, but immediately adjourned to make the usual formal call upon the President. Among the members admitted to the bar were two women, both of this city.

A motion to dismiss the appeal of the Waters-Pierce Company of St. Louis from the decisions of the Texas State courts ousting that company from doing business in Texas was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States yesterday by Attorney General Davidson, of Texas. The motion is based on the ground that there is no substantial Federal question involved in the case.

Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican national committee, announced yesterday that E. C. Duncan, of North Carolina, member of the executive committee at headquarters would accompany Judge Taft on his speaking tour of Kentucky. Mr. Hitchcock also said that no successor would be appointed to take the place of Mr. Dupont, who recently resigned as chairman of the speakers' bureau.

At Belmont Park, N. Y., in a two horse race, Etherial won the Rancho del paso sakes, which was run yesterday over the six furlong straight course Etherial and Wise Mason broke heads apart, but Etherial soon took a half length advantage. They ran in this order to opposite the field stand, where Mason moved up. The rest of the distance was under the whip, and in a hard drive Etherial won by a neck.

At Roanoke, Va., Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw spoke in behalf of the Republican ticket last night, discussing the issues of the campaign. In the afternoon he talked to students from several educational institutions in a city church, his theme being education. Today he will make rear platform speeches in ten towns in the Ninth district. Chairman Hitchcock today wired Mr. Shaw to accompany Judge Taft on his southern tour.

Philadelphia's Premier Beauty.

This young lady, the exquisite beauty of whose complexion has aroused the greatest admiration amongst the members of Philadelphia's fashionable younger set, recently confided to a few girl friends the secret of her extraordinary facial loveliness. The secret could not remain one long, and gossip in society circles tells us that this young woman had been greatly annoyed by many dark brown freckles, which obstinately defied removal until she became a user of Nadinola Facial Cream. With its aid, however, she not only quickly and easily banished these unsightly blemishes, but was also rejoiced to find her skin left in every way more beautiful than before—healthy, clear, soft and velvety, with all the freshness and exquisite loveliness of a perfect complexion. Nadinola Cream is sold in every high-class drug store, 50c. and $1.00 the package.
